- b. The order of preventive suspension must be recommended by the Arbitration Department, motu proprio or upon a motion by the Prosecution Department, and must be approved by the Senior Vice-President or head of the Legal Services Sector;
- c. The evidence of guilt is strong against the health care provider in the pending administrative case, as determined by the Arbitration Department; and
- d. The health care provider must have been previously adjudged guilty by the Arbitration Department in another administrative case also for a fraudulent offense.

VIII. DENIAL OF CLAIMS FOR CONFINEMENTS DURING THE PREVENTIVE SUSPENSION

All benefit claims filed with PhilHealth for confinements, treatments and professional services during the preventive suspension of the concerned provider shall be denied payment by PhilHealth unless such confinements, treatments and professional services are emergency in nature as contemplated under the existing rules of PhilHealth. However, such denied claims may be granted payment upon a motion for reconsideration with the concerned PhilHealth Regional Office (PhRO) and an appeal with the Protests and Appeals Review Department (PARD) where the concerned provider is subsequently absolved in the subject administrative case.

IX. MOTION TO LIFT THE ORDER OF PREVENTIVE SUSPENSION /RESOLUTION AND EFFECT THEREOF

A "motion to lift the order of preventive suspension" may be filed with the Arbitration Department by the affected health care provider within a non-extendible period of five (5) calendar days from receipt by the latter of an order of preventive suspension. The Arbitration Department shall then resolve such motion within five (5) calendar days from actual receipt thereof through an order, as approved by the Senior Vice-President of the Legal Sector, either denying or granting the said motion. The filing of such motion shall not affect the execution of an order of preventive suspension unless the said motion is granted. Being summary in nature, a formal hearing on the motion is not required, disposition of the motion shall only be based on the submitted pleadings. No Motion for Reconsideration or Appeal from such order granting or denying the same shall be allowed and entertained."

This circular shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its publication in a national newspaper of general circulation.
