

No. 11-01-2010

Extension of provisional accreditation of hospitals until December 31, 2010

The provisional accreditation earlier granted to hospitals until October 31, 2010 is extended until December 31, 2010.

This development is intended to ensure uninterrupted service to PhilHealth members while we are thoroughly evaluating the compliance documents of these hospitals.

The extension is applicable to hospitals whose applications have not yet been approved or denied. Further, these hospitals are enjoined to comply with all the requirements for accreditation to qualify as Centers of Safety before December 31, 2010.
