LBC Express, Inc. Now Accredited

Since December 1, 2010, the LBC Express Inc. has started accepting premium payments from Individually Paying Members. It is also accepting cash payments from Employers, both from the private and government sectors. It has 904 branches strategically located nationwide, and these are ready to accept the payments, except for branches located inside SM Malls.

When paying the premium, members must provide the LBC Customer Associate with the following details:

- Name of member / Employer's Name
- PhilHealth Identification Number (if IPM)
- PhilHealth Employer Number (if Employer)
- Period for which payment is being made
- Amount of payment being made
- Member type

The LBC Express, Inc. will issue either the Payment Receipt (Figure A) or the Acknowledgement Receipt printed on thermal paper (Figure B), depending on the existing system being used by the branch through which the payment is being made.
