

Philippine Health Insurance Corporation

ADVISORY

No. 2020 - 004

Appreciation of PhilHealth Benefit Eligibility Form (PBEF) Starting November 22, 2019

Pursuant to Section 6 of the Implementing Rules and Regulations (IRR) of Republic Act No. 11223 or the Universal Health Care Act of 2019, "every Filipino shall be granted immediate eligibility and access to preventive, promotive, curative, rehabilitative and palliative care."

As such, starting November 22, 2019, all PhilHealth Benefit Eligibility Forms (PBEFs) generated with "YES" responses but with remarks pertaining to deficiency in qualifying contributions are deemed eligible for PhilHealth benefits.

Health Care Providers (HCPs) are hereby advised to submit their claims with the said PBEFs to any of PhilHealth's Regional Offices for processing and payment. Claims needing compliance other than those with deficiency in contributions will be returned to the concerned HCP. Existing rules on denial of claims shall apply.

Further queries on clarifications pertaining to this advisory may be referred to our Action Center at (02) 8441-7442 or email us at actioncenter@philhealth.gov.ph.

BGEN. RICARDO C. MORALES, AFP (RET) FICD

President and Chief Executive Officer