

Philippine Health Insurance Corporation

ADVISORY

No. 2020 - 019

Automatic extension in the filing of appeals or motions for reconsideration of denied accreditation of Health Care Providers and application for continuous accreditation of Health Care Professionals

In the light of the declaration of “State of Public Health Emergency” on March 9, 2020; “Community Quarantine” on March 12, 2020; “Enhanced Community Quarantine” on March 15, 2020 for the whole of National Capital Region; and “State of Calamity” for the entire country on March 16, 2020, the filing of all appeals or motions for reconsideration on denied applications for accreditation for CY 2020 that were received by the concerned health care providers by February 24, 2020 shall be given automatic extension and may be filed until April 30, 2020.

The appeals or MRs may be filed with the Accreditation Committee through the Accreditation Department via email at accre@philhealth.gov.ph.

Further, the filing of application for continuous accreditation of health care professional/s whose accreditation is/are expiring on March 9, 2020 to April 15, 2020 shall be automatically extended until April 30, 2020.

BGEN. RICARDO C. MORALES, AFP (RET) FICD
President and Chief Executive Officer