No. 2025-0035

EFFECTIVITY OF LIFTING OF THE 45-DAY BENEFIT LIMIT RULE

Pursuant to PhilHealth Circular No. 2025-0007, the 45-day benefit limit rule has officially been lifted, effective April 4, 2025.

Under this policy, PhilHealth members and their qualified dependents are no longer subject to the 45-day maximum confinement limit per calendar year when availing of PhilHealth benefits. This revision is applicable to all hospitalizations that are ongoing as of April 4, 2025, regardless of the date of admission.

However, this policy change does not cover hemodialysis treatments, which will remain to be subject to the institutionalized limit of 156 sessions per year.
